

Biography of Karen McCullough

Karen McCullough is the author of ten published novels in the mystery, romantic suspense, and fantasy genres and has won numerous awards, including an Eppie Award for fantasy. She's also been a four-time Eppie finalist, and a finalist in the Prism, Dream Realm, Rising Star, Lories, Scarlett Letter, and Vixen Awards contests. Her short fiction has appeared in several anthologies and numerous small press publications in the fantasy, science fiction, and romance genres. Her most recent release is A GIFT FOR MURDER, published in hardcover by Five Star/Gale Group Mysteries.

Karen worked in trade publishing for more than ten years as an editor, managing editor, and senior web editor. She lives in North Carolina, and now runs a web design company that specializes in creating web sites for authors and other small businesses.

A member of Mystery Writers of America, Romance Writers of America, and the Writers' Group of the Triad, she is also a former president of the Southeast Chapter of Mystery Writers of America and has served on the boards of MWA National and the Writers' Group of the Triad. She still serves on the boards of Gothic Romance Writers and Carolina Romance Writers, both chapters of RWA.

She invites visitors to check out her home on the web at <http://www.kmccullough.com> and her site for the Market Center Mysteries series, <http://www.marketcentermysteries.com>